

XM Radio should be able to provide any service they would like to see as how we pay for the services that they are providing. I live in Rochester, NY XM does not offer this service to me but if I'm on the road and in one of the cities that has this service then I would use it, seeing as how I don't know the local stations.